

CHART 8520

Stream No. 34 (2 notices) Head Port Etches.

Is 40 feet wide and 8 inches deep.

Has a fine greenstone gravel bottom, and wide bed.

Comes in at center of head.

Is accessible more than 2 miles and fish that far up it.

Number of stream in N. E. corner.

There is another good-sized streams that comes in at the S. E. corner, but the fish are only a short distance up it. It is part glacier water. There are several minor issues around the center one and numerous ponds with fish in them.

August 14, 1925.....10,000 fish (did not go as far upstream as in 1926; there may have been more fish)

August 27, 1926.....23,000 fish all told, allowing 1/3 dead.

September 9, 1927.....15,300 fish, 300 cohos.

August 25, 1928.....10,000.

September 16, 1929.....4,000, 75% chums.

September 10, 1930.....32,000, 25% chums.